WHY WE ORGANISE TZU CHI SINGAPORE MARATHON

The Tzu Chi Singapore Marathon is not just another marathon. It is a sports event that is built upon four core values to raise the spirit of Great Love, inclusiveness, build a more cohesive, more caring society, while striving to achieve better.

Four core values of the Tzu Chi Singapore Marathon

Courage 勇气:	To take a bold move to step out of comfort to stretch and level up
Perseverance 毅力:	To keep moving towards desired outcomes
Confidence 信心:	To have hope, aspirations, and bigger dreams
Inclusiveness 包容:	To embrace social diversity, and everyone can run

The decision to take part in a long-distance run is a metaphor for every individual in real life. To take a courageous step to decide, prepare for the race, persevere to complete the journey, take care of people and environment as they reach the goal. And once the first milestone is achieved to set targets on the next milestone with confidence. Together we can run for a stronger, more resilient, caring, and sustainable Singapore.

Life is like a Marathon; Run Far Run Deep

ABOUT BUDDHIST COMPASSION RELIEF TZU-CHI FOUNDATION (SINGAPORE)

The Buddhist Tzu Chi Foundation is a global non-profit humanitarian organisation founded in 1966 by a Buddhist nun named Dharma Master Cheng Yen in Taiwan. Its missions of charity, medicine, education, humanistic culture and environmental protection has brought relief to over 100 countries.

In 1993, Tzu-Chi Foundation (Singapore) was established, with the organisation's work starting with the Mission of Charity and the goal of relieving poverty, before gradually expanding into the Missions of Medicine, Education, Humanistic Culture, and Environmental Protection over the years. The heart of Tzu Chi is embedded in its name: in Chinese, "tzu慈" means compassion and "chi济," relief.
