

International School of Formational Prayer Terms and Conditions

Unless otherwise noted, all materials and resources that are provided to participants in the training program of the International School of Formational Prayer are copyrighted and should not be shared with anyone without written permission from Healing Care Ministries or its designee.

In my use of this program, I agree to keep the materials and resources I receive exclusively for my own use during unless otherwise permitted according to the terms above.