ABOUT ME

I'm an accredited Civil & Commercial Mediator with a calm, practical approach to resolving disputes. I help individuals and businesses find fair, cost-effective solutions without the stress of going to court.

I specialise in property-related disputes, drawing on over 20 years of hands-on experience in the sector — but I also support clients across a wide range of commercial and civil matters.

With a background in journalism and business, I bring clarity, empathy, and a focus on helping people move forward.

TESTIMONIALS

I"Kelly is a professional, confident mediator. Attentive to detail, thoughtful, and entirely trustworthy. I would highly recommend her as a mediator."
Lesley Alford, Professor at Imperial College London

Kelly is a professional and intelligent mediator with a warm and inclusive manner. She is always well prepared and undertakes her role with sincerity and confidence. I observed Kelly's mediation and saw her natural authority, gentle demeanour, and incisive questioning style. The mediation was settled to all participants' satisfaction. I highly recommend her as an accredited mediator.
Mary Breen, Schools Adviser at Farrer & Co

Kelly consistently demonstrates exceptional professionalism in her approach to mediation. Her active listening skills combined with being an effective communicator are impressive.
Kelly is thoughtful, trustworthy with a warm sense of humour, and it is always a pleasure to be in her company.
Sharon Wilson, Employee Relations Specialist
