

Bealtaine Retreat Mount St Annes Ireland's Beautiful Midlands

Friday May 1st Saturday May 2nd Sunday May 3rd and

Bank Holiday Monday May 4th 2026

I'm so glad that you have found your way to this retreat prospectus which I hope will give you all the information you need to decide if this simple beautiful time of rest, restore and nourishment is for you. If this retreat is calling you I encourage you to book your place. We will be a group of 25. There will not be any extra places for later bookings so it is strictly on a first come first served basis.

If after reading the information here you would like to discuss any aspect of the retreat, or you have any questions, please do not hesitate to book a zoom call with here. I hope to have the opportunity to welcome you to the the restful Mount St Annes in Ireland's beautiful midlands.

Why Bealtaine?

Considered one of the holiest times within the Celtic Wheel of the Year, Bealtaine is the mid-point festival that honours the move towards the light. It is a time of increase and potency; days are lengthening, and new growth is emerging. This is a festival that celebrates the fire of life, which will grow as the retreat progresses.

Our time together will be a potent set-apart time, a time dedicated to the seasonal energies that are moving within and throughout us, in our own inner-nature, as well as throughout the natural world where we live.

This Blessed Bealtaine Retreat is an time for you to reflect on the summer energies within you, and to meaningfully engage with your own heart as you prepare to blossom as you cross the various thresholds of your own life.

Is this Retreat For You?

Have you been feeling overwhelmed, exhausted, and uninspired lately?

Have you been neglecting your own needs and prioritising everyone else's?

You're not alone.

Stress overload affects women from all walks of life, whether you're a working mom, an entrepreneur, a caregiver, or simply juggling multiple responsibilities.

It has been drummed into women that our dreams and expectations come second.

So if you're feeling disconnected or like you've lost yourself along the way, know that it's OK to ask for more, to want more, to start focusing on what you need.

If this is you, and now is the time to take yourself off the back of the line I hope you will give yourself this gift of a very special time apart to rest, reset, and renew.

The Venue - Mount St Annes Retreat And Conference Centre

I am so happy to be able to invite you to this Georgian mansion dating from 1820 set in beautiful gardens and natural landscape. You will be well taken care of here with well prepared wholesome food and plenty of indoor and outdoor spaces for you to relax and unwind.

Do I need to have experience of Mindfulness and Celtic Spirituality?

If you have never done any mindfulness before, nor experienced Celtic Spirituality, you will feel right at home on this retreat. If you have tried mindfulness before and found it not for you - then I really want you to come to this retreat, where you will have a very different experience of naturally coming home to your own inner calm.

Accommodation

This is a residential retreat where you will have your own single ensuite bedroom, and access to many spaces to relax and unwind in this gracious historical venue. The house has extensive gardens so you will have as a great variety of outdoor areas to explore at your leisure.

For those who would like to arrive the day before our retreat, or if you are travelling with another and/ or plan to spend more time in Ireland after the retreat you might like to check out The Heritage Hotel which is a 13 minute walk or two minute drive from our retreat centre offers is a very popular 4-star accommodations.
