Live consistent with who you really are, inspired by the loving kindness of God. My brothers, the most practical expression of worship is to make your bodies available to him as a living sacrifice; this pleases him more than any religious routine. He desires to find visible, individual expression in your person.

Do not allow current religious tradition to mold you into its pattern of reasoning. Like an inspired artist, give attention to the detail of God's desire to find expression in you. Become acquainted with perfection. To accommodate yourself to the delight and good pleasure of him will transform your thoughts afresh from within.

- Romans 12:1-2 (The Mirror)

Preface: Engaging with This Word

This prophetic message is more than words on a page—it is an invitation into a divine encounter. The Holy Spirit is moving in this hour, awakening us to deeper levels of revelation, transformation, and embodiment of Christ.

As you read, approach this word with an open heart and a yielded spirit. This is not just a teaching to absorb, but a reality to step into.

Here's how you can fully engage with this prophetic word:

1. Read Prayerfully

Before you begin, pause and invite the Holy Spirit to speak to you. Ask Him to highlight what is for you in this moment and to awaken your spirit to His voice.

2. Read with Expectation

This word is alive. It carries an impartation of what God is doing in this season. Expect to feel His presence, receive revelation, and even experience shifts in your understanding as you read.

3. Journal and Reflect

Write down insights, confirmations, and any questions that arise. Revelation builds upon revelation, and keeping track of what the Holy Spirit is speaking will help you partner with what He is unfolding.

4. Vocalize Your “Yes”

The power of agreement is a spiritual principle. When you declare, 'Yes, Lord, be it unto me according to Your word,' you are aligning yourself with what has already been established in heaven.

5. Apply the Word

This is not just a word to hear—it is a reality to embody. Ask yourself:

- How is God calling me to shift?
- What limiting beliefs need to be surrendered?
- How can I yield more fully to His Spirit?

6. Stay in Conversation with God

This word isn't the end of the conversation—it's the beginning. As you meditate on what God is revealing, stay in dialogue with Him. Ask Him to take you deeper into the mysteries of His heart and make this revelation your lived reality.

This is more than a message—it is an activation. Receive it, believe it, and step into the fullness of what God is revealing.

Now, let's begin.

Introduction: The Origin Of This Message

The enclosed pages contain a prophetic message for 2025, originally transcribed, lightly edited, and thoughtfully expanded to bring clarity. This message is based on several encounters, dreams, and revelations given to me by the Holy Spirit from early December 2024 through January 6, 2025, when I shared it during my Word of the Year broadcast. I also felt led to compile previous prophetic words referenced within this message to provide further insight and understanding.

I felt an undeniable prompting to organize and compile this prophetic message into written form because of its strategic nature concerning the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives at this critical moment. We are in the midst of a global elevation of human consciousness—the awakening and manifestation of the Sons of God. Christ consciousness is rising—not only within those who identify as the Body of Christ but globally.

Clarifying Christ Consciousness

I recognize that the term "Christ consciousness" can sometimes be vague or misinterpreted, referring to levels of awareness that are not strictly grounded in the Gospel of Christ. Let me be clear about my use of this term:

This is a global awakening to our union with God, realized in and through Jesus Christ. While many faith traditions may reference the "non-duality" of oneness with God, the true measure of this union is the fullness of the stature of Jesus Christ—both in us and as us.

Therefore, the message describing the elevation of Christ consciousness in the pages that follow is entirely Christian and fundamentally Christ-centered. I am not describing a generic spirituality or an "I Am" consciousness detached from the "I Am" of Jesus Christ. Instead, this is an invitation to experience the reality of our divine union with the only true and living God, our glorious Father, through the finished work of Christ.

Understanding the Global Awakening at Hand

Across the globe, people from diverse spiritual backgrounds are awakening to the concept of non-dual reality. This movement transcends labels and traditions, demonstrating the expansiveness of Christ's work in undoing Adam's fall and reconciling humanity to Himself.

It reveals the truth that all humanity has been reconciled to God through Jesus Christ. Yet, each of us is on a unique journey with the Holy Spirit, awakening to this reality—whether we recognize it as the work of God's Spirit or not.

And while this global awakening testifies to the universal desire for divine connection, unity, and the breaking down of barriers that have long divided humanity, it remains fragmented in its current form. This is because the Holy Spirit, in His genius, meets each of us at our individual level of consciousness, working within the paradigm and worldview we presently hold.

This explains why non-dual spiritual concepts appear in different traditions around the world. However, true oneness apart from Christ is ultimately impossible—because Christ is the exact representation of the invisible God.

While I do not claim to fully understand how Holy Spirit will bring humanity into the unity of the faith and the knowledge of the Son of God—maturing and attaining the complete measure of the fullness of Christ—I am confident in what I am hearing from Holy Spirit. The process is underway.

Aligning with God's Agenda: Transfiguration

The words on the pages that follow are more than divine insights—they are a strategic call to, and an impartation of, transfiguration. I encourage you to affirm your agreement with both by verbalizing your “yes” to the awakening God is working within you and the purposes He has for you in this hour as you engage with this message.

As you do, I believe you will experience higher levels of consciousness and alignment with God's Spirit, Mind, and Glory. Allow the Holy Spirit to guide you through the progression of revelation I'm sharing, and expect your own transformational encounters with Yahweh—encounters that release Him as the living, visible expression of Himself through you on Earth.

The work of the Holy Spirit in this hour is nothing short of prolific. It calls us to leave behind limiting beliefs, subconscious patterns of separation, and outdated paradigms that obscure the revelation of our divine union with Yahweh in Christ.

This message is also an invitation to fully embrace the operating system of the mind of Christ—a reality where the eternal now, God's perfect and unchanging reality, is made manifest in our lives as we operate as Him.

This is the promise of the gospel—a complete and revolutionary redefinition of identity, of the very word "I." It is the conclusion of Paul's revelation in Galatians 2:20:

"I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me."

A Call to Transfiguration

These pages hold both practical encouragement and profound revelation. You'll break free from limiting thought patterns and step into the embodiment of Yahweh—this is a divine roadmap for living fully as a Son of God in this pivotal hour. From breaking free of enslaved thought patterns to embracing the embodiment of Yahweh, this message serves as a divine roadmap for living fully as Sons of God in this pivotal hour.

As you read, I encourage you to approach this message with an open heart and a yielded spirit, boldly speaking the same words as Mary, "Yes, Lord. Be it unto me according to Your word." As you read, take time to reflect on what the Holy Spirit is highlighting. Journal your insights, visit the scriptures and prophetic words referenced, and let this word serve as a guiding light for 2025. This is not just a word to read—it is a move of God in your life.

As you walk into the days ahead, may your heart overflow with expectancy. Trust Holy Spirit to reveal and magnify the majesty of Christ in and through you. The year 2025 marks a pivotal moment of awakening and transfiguration. the way God desires to manifest Himself through you and as you are beyond anything you could imagine—they are absolutely mind-blowing.

A Prayer For Revelation

The following prayer was first spoken during the 2025 Word of the Year broadcast. As I prayed, I felt Holy Spirit moving, guiding each word, and aligning our hearts with God's agenda for this hour. It was a sacred moment, so I wanted to include this prayer here for you—to invite you to receive it in faith. I encourage you to posture your heart to receive as you read this prayer, allowing Holy Spirit to minister to you personally.

Oh, my goodness. Father, thank You. Thank You for the gift of this new year. Thank You for bringing us to this moment in the timeline of planet Earth. And thank You, Father, for gathering us here today to hear from You. Thank You that You are doing great and mighty things.

You are moving in powerful ways—in our lives, in our families, and across every facet of society. You are doing great things on this planet. And Father, I thank You that we were born for such a time as this. I thank You that we are alive in 2025—oh, that even rhymes by Your design! Father, I know it is no accident.

It is no accident that we are here in this moment, part of the body of Christ, filled with Your Spirit. It's no accident that You have prepared us for this hour. I thank You, Father, that You have plans for us—plans far greater than we could ask, think, or imagine. Plans so extraordinary that we cannot even begin to fathom them.

But I thank You, Father, that You are revealing these plans to us by Your Spirit. I thank You for the gift of prophecy, the grace of the prophet, and the reward that comes with it. I thank You that prophecy remains relevant today and that You are still moving powerfully through the ministry of the prophetic.

And so, Father, I yield myself to You. I yield my mind, my body, and all my faculties to You today. I present myself as a living sacrifice—this is my reasonable service. Father, I thank You that this is Your broadcast. This is Your body, Your bride, and these are Your children. You have things You want to share with them today.

So, have Your way, Papa. Align us with Your agenda. Make clear the things You have been speaking to me, and help me share them in a way that resonates and makes sense to everyone listening.

I pray, Father, for the spirit of wisdom and revelation to flood their hearts and minds right now. I pray that the eyes of their understanding would be enlightened. I ask that You use this word to edify, encourage, and comfort—to build up Your people. I pray that it would bring confirmation, instruction, direction, and whatever else Your children need today.

Father, may this word help them become established in their identity in You. May it equip them to step into the fullness of what You have ordained for their lives and to grow into the fullness of the stature of Jesus Christ. I pray that they would be equipped for the work of their ministry and that You would glorify Yourself in them and through them.

I ask all this in the name of Jesus. Amen. Amen. Amen.

The Word of the Year for 2025

The following chapters capture the essence of the 2025 Word of the Year broadcast, where the Holy Spirit moved powerfully to reveal God's agenda for this pivotal time. While not an exact transcription, this message has been thoughtfully compiled to preserve the heart of what was shared. As you read, let these words resonate deeply. Invite the Holy Spirit to bring clarity, alignment, and revelation as He speaks to your heart.

The Significance of 2025: A Purposeful Time

Welcome to 2025! It is no coincidence that we are alive at this specific moment in history. My opening prayer contained a simple rhyme: “We are alive in 2025!” And it’s true, right? We were born for such a time as this—on purpose.

We are alive in this hour because God desires to use us—our bodies, our faculties, and our lives—to glorify Him. He wants to demonstrate through us that Jesus is alive and His work is finished.

We have an important role in the expansion of the Kingdom of God. And I’m excited to be here with you today! It feels like a century has passed since we last met for December’s Word of the Month. I don’t know about you, but so much has transpired in my life since then. So much!

Revisiting December’s Word: Are You Listening?

The word for December was incredibly powerful. And you know, I always encourage us in January to revisit and reflect on what God spoke in December. To watch the broadcast of December’s word of the Month go to: <https://vimeo.com/1039080584/1ae55bbff7?share=copy>.

There’s often a winding down and then a build-up as we transition into a new year. Just as a refresher, the essence of December’s word came from Matthew 11:15 in The Message Translation:

“Are you listening to me? Really listening?”

This scripture was an invitation to spend time with God, and along with that, I shared how God wanted to unpack deeper things for us—emphasizing that this was a time to truly listen.

One thing that amazed me in December, as I revisited many of my journals, was realizing how much room I had to grow as a listener. Even though I was writing down what I was hearing from God, it wasn’t fully permeating. When I went back and read things God had spoken way back in 2010 and 2011, I saw that many of those words were still unfolding in my life. And as I looked at them again, the revelation that poured out was amazing. It was also clear that I was now reading them through new lenses, seeing them in a new light.

There was much more revelation and understanding. In fact, as I reflected on everything, it led me to choose "wisdom" as my personal word for the year. I saw how God was connecting the dots, and I was absolutely blown away by His wisdom—by the wisdom of the Holy Spirit and how He was pouring it out to me.

Prophetic Words: Timeless and Active

As we enter January and the new year, I want to remind you—prophetic words don't have an expiration date. Back in 2019, I received a word about living from our true identity and how abiding in Christ is our natural and perpetual state of being, whether we are aware of it or not. Separation from God is always just an illusion.¹

But that word wasn't just for 2019. It continues to resonate through time and space until it is fully manifested in our lives. Every word from God works this way. Isn't that what Scripture says? God's words are effective. They are sharper than any two-edged sword. They are alive. They are spirit and truth, and they do not return void.

As we step into this new year, I want you to fully grasp this concept. Prophecy is something we engage with and hold onto until it is fulfilled. When we receive a word from God, our role is to embrace it the same way Mary did, saying, "Be it unto me, Lord, according to Your word." Then, we continue to agree with it and live in alignment with it until it becomes reality.

There are things God spoke to me years ago—scriptures He shared before my children were born, over 18 years ago—that are still manifesting in my life today. So, as we begin this year, I want to highlight two things. First, the words God gives us do not expire—they are alive and continue to unfold. Second, the context of what I'm sharing today is a continuation of what God was speaking in December.

And I don't know about you, but for me, December's word about really listening was powerful. It catapulted me into a whole new level of seeking God and hungering for more wisdom. So, as we enter 2025, I wanted to begin with a deeper look at prophecy. Because let's be honest—prophecy can feel a little weird sometimes, right?

Understanding Prophetic Ministry

In the body of Christ, there seem to be two camps regarding the prophetic. In one camp, with the rise of social media, anyone who learns how to go live can suddenly declare themselves a 'prophet.' As a result, there's a constant stream of prophetic words being shared, and it's easy to become almost addicted—always craving the word of the prophet or the word for the day. This can create an imbalance where people rely too heavily on others instead of being led by the Spirit themselves.

Then, there's the other camp that dismisses the prophetic altogether. They claim there's no new word for 2025, as if prophecy is no longer relevant or has been so misused that it should be ignored. Both of these views are extremes.

The Prophetic is Still Valid

So, let me encourage you—the prophetic is absolutely valid. Prophets are one of the five grace gifts mentioned in Ephesians 4, alongside the apostle, evangelist, teacher, and pastor. These gifts will remain on the earth until we all reach the fullness of the stature of Jesus and the unity of the faith. And if you read Ephesians 4, it's clear—we haven't arrived there yet. Therefore, these ministries and graces are still very much active and necessary.

But here's something important—the ministry of a prophet is meant to make you prophetic. A prophet's role is to activate your spiritual senses so you can hear God for yourself. The prophet is not your source, nor are any of the fivefold gifts. As Jeremiah 31:33-34 (NIV) prophesied, in the new covenant, God has put His law in our minds and written it on our hearts, and we all can know Him for ourselves. These gifts are invaluable, but they were never meant to replace your direct relationship with God.

The Holy Spirit absolutely uses prophecy and the grace of a prophet to equip the saints for their ministry. That's why I want to be clear—it is valid that I share these words of the month. It is valid that I release love notes from God. Prophecy is meant to edify, encourage, inspire, and activate your spiritual senses.

I will not apologize for these prophetic broadcasts, nor will I stop doing them, because the Holy Spirit has directed me to do so. I just wanted to put that in balance, okay?

Encounters with God for Yourself

This is not about me hearing God for you. In fact, most of what I share today should serve as confirmation of what you're already hearing. My goal is for you to encounter God for yourself, hear God for yourself, and step into the fullness of union with Jesus. I want you to operate as a mature son of God who co-rules and co-reigns with Jesus.

I want you to live seated in heavenly places and fulfill everything God has written about you before the foundation of the world. My desire is for you to partner with the Father the way Jesus did in His earthly ministry—to dominate the seen realm, expand the Kingdom, and preach the gospel through your example and testimony.

And until we are all doing that, well—guess what? I'm going to keep doing what I'm doing. And these grace gifts will continue. So let me say this unapologetically—I have been hearing from God, not just for myself, but for you too. Today, I am stepping fully into the role and grace of a prophet to deliver these words to you.

Recap of December's Themes

Now, back to what I shared in December. The focus of the word was on listening—really listening and making space to hear. In my Elevate community, we took this one step further by exploring Psalm 139:16:

"All the days of our lives were written in His book before any of them took shape."

Their assignment was to sit with God and read the book He had written about their lives. I encouraged them to step into Papa's study, into His house—realizing that's where they already dwell—and to become deeply aware of His presence. Their task was to sit with Him and allow Him to unpack what He had already written about their lives. That was the heart of what I was hearing and encouraging everyone to engage with in December—through the word of the month, in Elevate, and in the Love Notes.

Prophetic Revelation and the Spirit of Understanding

Throughout December, I kept hearing the Father say,

"Listen! I have so much to say. I have so much that I want to share."

You know, 1 Corinthians 2 says:

"Eye has not seen, ear has not heard, nor has it entered into the heart of man, the things that God has prepared for His lovers. But God has revealed them to us by His Spirit."

It goes on to explain how the Spirit of God knows the heart, the intentions, and the secrets of God, and that we haven't been given the spirit of the world, but the Spirit by which we can know these things. The Passion Translation paraphrases it as:

"All the things that grace has freely lavished upon us."

I want you to know—and more importantly, Papa wants you to know—the incredible things He has planned for you. Every time we listen to God, we are engaging with the Holy Spirit. We are moving in the gift of prophecy simply by hearing Him for ourselves.

After giving that word in December, I feel like I've lived a century since then. I spent a lot of time listening, and it turned out to be one of the most productive—yet also one of the busiest—months I've had in a while. It was truly a supernatural time in so many respects.

As January began, I took intentional time to reflect and write down the progression of what I had been hearing from God. As I did, it became clear that a progressive revelation was unfolding. Then, I had a couple of profound dreams leading up to today's broadcast. Through this process, it has become increasingly apparent what God is doing as we enter the new year.

Progressing in Revelation and Consciousness

Before we jump into what God is speaking for 2025, I'd like to revisit the progression of what He has been revealing since early December, when He first asked us the question from Matthew 11:15 (MSG):

"Are you listening to me? Really listening?"

Before moving on, I want to highlight something significant that stood out as I sat with this concept of listening to God. I felt like the Holy Spirit brought the "map of consciousness" into this conversation, and it added a profound layer to what I was processing.

The Map of Consciousness and Spiritual Growth

If you're not familiar with the Map of Consciousness, it's something I often discuss with my students and those I coach. This framework, developed by Dr. David Hawkins, is based on his research into human consciousness and calibrated levels of awareness. It categorizes different levels of consciousness by measurable energetic frequency, describing the predominant emotional states, worldview, and perception of self, others, and God at each level.

At the lowest level is shame, a place of disconnection and heaviness. From there, levels ascend through emotions like guilt, anger, pride, reasoning, acceptance, love, and joy, all the way up to enlightenment—a state of divine awareness where the illusion of separation from God dissolves, revealing complete union and alignment with God's mind and consciousness.

Now, I won't go into a deep teaching on this today because it's a huge topic, but for those of you who have heard me teach on it before, I want to say this: I strongly felt the Holy Spirit highlighting the map of consciousness in this season.

The following illustration of the Map of Consciousness visually represents how consciousness is structured, showing the progression from lower, survival-based states of fear and struggle to higher states of love, awareness, and divine union. Rather than a rigid hierarchy, this map reflects the way different levels of consciousness shape our perception of reality, influence our emotions, and determine how we experience God’s presence in our lives.

The Map of Consciousness

Developed by Dr. David Hawkins

	Name of Level	Energetic Log	Predominant Emotional State	View of Life	God-view	Process
Spiritual Paradigm	Enlightenment	700-1000	Ineffable	Is	Self	Pure Consciousness
	Peace	600	Bliss	Perfect	All-Being	Illumination

How the Map of Consciousness Works

The Map of Consciousness assigns numerical values to different states of consciousness, starting from 20 (Shame) at the lowest end and going up to 1000 (Enlightenment) at the highest. It is divided into three primary categories:

- Survival Paradigm (Low Consciousness States) – These are states dominated by fear, anger, guilt, and shame, where life feels hard, disconnected, and driven by struggle or scarcity.
- Reason & Integrity (Mid-Consciousness States) – These levels reflect increased personal responsibility, logic, and faith, where people begin to trust in divine order and let go of ego-driven fears.
- Spiritual Paradigm (High Consciousness States) – This is where oneness with God, divine love, and enlightenment occur. In this state, a person operates fully in union with God rather than feeling separate from Him.

At lower levels, people tend to experience the illusion of separation from God, feeling as though life is a constant challenge. As consciousness rises, awareness of God’s presence becomes more natural, leading to miraculous breakthroughs, deeper intuition, and effortless alignment with spiritual truth.

How Our Level of Consciousness Shapes the Way We Hear God

At every level of consciousness, we operate through a specific paradigm—a lens through which we interpret and understand the world. This lens shapes how we perceive everything—including the words God speaks to us.

Each level comes with a corresponding filter that influences our interpretation of reality. What the Holy Spirit highlighted to me is that the reason I now see the same prophetic words from 2011 and 2013 so differently today is because I’m at a higher level of consciousness now.

As we grow spiritually and move into higher levels of consciousness, our ability to perceive and understand what God is saying expands. That’s why I now see the words God spoke to me years ago with greater clarity and insight.

What I couldn’t fully grasp then, I now understand on a much deeper level. The Holy Spirit was showing me that as our consciousness expands, so does our ability to receive, interpret, and apply His words. Revelation is not static—it unfolds as we elevate our awareness and align more deeply with the mind of Christ.

Recognizing Our Spiritual Filters

The filter I was viewing those words through back then is very different from where I am now. I'd say my level of consciousness, my level of awakening, and the level at which I function in union with Jesus have all grown exponentially since 2011 and 2013.

So, of course, when I go back and look at those prophetic words now, I bring a new lens to them. We all have filters through which we hear from God. I'm not saying this to diminish anything but rather to help us recognize that becoming aware of these filters helps us approach what we hear from God with humility and discernment. This keeps us from immediately assuming we fully understand what God is saying and rushing to act on it without seeking deeper revelation.

The Importance of Sitting with Revelation

It humbles us to truly sit with what we're hearing from God and allow the Holy Spirit to continue speaking and interpreting what we're receiving. That's why continuing to listen—and reflecting on how we listen—is so important.

The question, "Are you really listening to what I'm saying?" is incredibly relevant because we want to listen with the fullest capacity possible—without the limitations of our own consciousness or the default lenses we use to see the world.

We want to receive the word without distortion. We want to receive revelation from the Holy Spirit as purely and fully as possible—without attaching our own human interpretations.

And what does that require? That we continue the conversation. We ask questions. We ask clarifying questions until the Holy Spirit leads us into the full understanding of what He is teaching us.

Revelation Takes Time—Give Yourself Permission to Process

I just thought this was an interesting little tidbit that came out of December's word for me, and I think it's worth mentioning as we continue exploring what God is speaking today.

It's tempting to take what God says, put our own spin on it, and make meaning out of it that may or may not align with what the Holy Spirit is actually saying. That's why I encourage you: Measure these words carefully. Spend time with them. Journal about them. Seek God for yourself and truly listen—not just to what I'm sharing, but also to what you're hearing directly from Him. And guess what? That takes time.

As we step into 2025, I want to tell you: What God has planned for you is mind-blowing. And when your mind gets blown—when your understanding is completely expanded and renewed—it takes time to process. It takes time to listen, reflect, meditate, and think deeply about what you are receiving. This is not a drive-through transformation.

This is mind renewal. This is transfiguration. This is stepping into the fullness, the aliveness, and the "wokeness," if you will, of operating as a son of God.

No Rush—God's Timing Is Perfect

We are stepping into the operating system of God—the system of union with Him. This new system is being developed in our lives, and it is completely different from the old system of separation.

Because of this, it takes time. And when I say time, I want to emphasize something: There's no rush. There's no rush in our time with God, no rush in our relationship with Him, and no rush in the work He is doing within us. He is the one causing us to will and to do His good pleasure.

This is a profound work that God is doing in our lives—to transform our minds, reshape our perceptual filters, shift our paradigms, elevate our consciousness, and heal the illusion of separation. He is bringing us into the fullness of what it truly means to live as one with Him. So, maybe just settle your heart on that.

Give yourself permission to take your time, release the pressure, and let the Lord have His way. Allow Him to do what He's wanting to do in you—so that He can do what He wants to do for you and through you.

The Light of Awakening: Ephesians 5:14

Now, let's move on to what I started hearing in mid to late December. This is a really powerful verse that ties perfectly into everything I've shared up to this point. It's from Ephesians 5:14 in the Mirror Translation, and it profoundly impacted me. To me, this verse speaks to the process of revelation that we're in, and frankly, it reflects something the Holy Spirit is doing in our lives all the time.

But this was specifically highlighted to me as we enter 2025. Here's what it says:

“This is the message of light. Christ awakens you from your intoxicated slumber and resurrects you out of the death trap of enslaved thought patterns.”

Let me read that again: “This is the message of light.” (And I also want to highlight that this is the work of the Holy Spirit—the work of Christ.) It says,

“Christ awakens us from our intoxicated slumber.”

That intoxicated slumber refers to the intoxication of the spirit of the world, the spirit of this age. It's the intoxication of separation, which manifests itself through religion, works, striving, and performance. It's also the enslaved thought patterns we inherit simply because we're born into the world system.

The Holy Spirit's Work in Breaking Old Thought Patterns

This verse says that Christ awakens you from your intoxicated slumber and resurrects you out of the death trap of enslaved thought patterns. This is a powerful work that the Holy Spirit is actively doing in your life—every single day, through every circumstance you face.

There is freedom that Christ is working in you because your freedom has already been purchased. It is an accomplished fact. The enslaved thought patterns are what tether us to the old man, the old identity. These thought patterns perpetuate the illusion of separation and cause us to live out of a false identity, operating at a level far below who we truly are, who God really is, and who He is within us.

A Season of Revelation and Letting Go

This work of the Holy Spirit is something I felt very intensely throughout December. I believe God has been, and will continue to, reveal thought patterns, behavioral cycles, and habits in our lives that stem from the old man. But here's what's different: These patterns aren't just being broken; they're being dropped completely—like a hot potato.

They're simply things that, when the light shines on them, we'll see and recognize for what they truly are—thoughts arising from the old man, the programmed mind, the separated "I." And when we see them clearly, we'll simply drop them. It's not even necessarily a process—it's more like a light being turned on so that you can finally see.

Once you see it in the light, you'll recognize it for what it truly is and think, "That's not me." You will no longer associate with it at all. You'll see it as not a part of your being. It will be a literal "aha" moment where everything shifts.

A Consciousness Shift Into the Mind of Christ

This will be a paradigm shift, a perspective shift, and a shift in consciousness into oneness consciousness. And that consciousness shift changes everything. I've been sitting with this Einstein quote a lot over the last 30 days, probably the last 90 days:

"You cannot solve a problem with the same level of consciousness that created it."

Sometimes it's phrased as "the same level of thinking that created it." What I'm talking about is this: when the light comes on, suddenly there's a higher mind—the mind of Christ. From this elevated perspective, problems that were created by, or perceived as problems by, the separated mind will either be resolved or cease to exist entirely.

That is basically all from the scripture, Ephesians 5:14 (The Mirror), that God gave me towards the end of December. I really felt Him breathing on it to highlight what's happening to us.

Now, let me also say this about some of the problems that you may be experiencing in your life at the moment. For some of you, you may find yourself walking through circumstances right now that feel like a repeat—same situation, but a different year; same situation, but different people; same problem, with no clear resolution yet.

It's like you've come around the mountain again, or you've gone through this pattern or cycle only to find yourself in the same set of circumstances. But here's what I'm sharing with you—if this is you, know this: There is an elevation happening right now in this place. That pattern is not going to continue.

Not Just a Breakthrough—A Complete Departure

But, it's not a breaking of the pattern—it's a complete departure from it. You aren't going to have to analyze it or understand where it came from. You will just see it for what it is and drop it.

I wanted to share this as context or background for some of the things you may be experiencing right now. This isn't about breaking a pattern—it's about completely leaving it behind. You will step into the new, without even looking back. You won't need to analyze the pattern, try to understand it, or even figure out where it came from. You'll simply see it for what it is—a pattern of the old man and the separated 'I'—and drop it. That is the context for what many of you may be experiencing right now.

The Eternal Now: Co-Creating with God

On the last Friday of December, I shared a love note titled "Happy Now Year,"² and it's worth revisiting. It's a powerful word about how everything is finished. I'm not going to take the time to read it right now—right, Lord? No, not right now.

But as you process the things I'm sharing with you today, I encourage you to bring that word back into your reflection. I didn't even release a love note last week because I didn't want to dilute what had been spoken coming into the new year. I highly recommend going back and reading it again—it's worth it.

The New Year's Eve Experience

From there—and I promise, I'm leading up to the point—but I felt strongly that I was supposed to take you through the prophetic process we've been in to help you move from where we were to where we are today.

On New Year's Eve, I had what I would call a dream, though that's probably not the most accurate way to describe it. It happened in that liminal space between sleeping and waking, where you're lingering in a limbo state. At that moment, a revelation began to pour into me. But it wasn't just a revelation—it was an experience.

As I lay there in bed, it felt as though Yahweh—Papa—was fully embodying my body, specifically my eyes. I "opened" my eyes, even though they were physically shut. In this experience, my eyes were open, but I wasn't looking through them in the usual sense. They weren't functioning as my physical senses, nor were they connected to my brain. Instead, it was Father embodying Himself in me, using my physical body as His vessel.

I was fully connected to His mind and fully connected to Him. He was completely integrated as me and began speaking to me about His desire to use my body—and, more broadly, His body.

Yahweh's Desire to Manifest Through Us

His desire is to embody the body of Christ to such a degree that He uses our faculties to manifest through us.

Interestingly, quantum physics aligns with this concept through the observer effect. This principle reveals that the act of observation influences matter and energy at a quantum level. It demonstrates that what is observed shifts from a state of possibility into tangible reality, collapsing from a wave (potential) into a particle (physical form) through the act of focused attention.

I've talked about this extensively in my podcast, and honestly, I talk about it a lot in general. For this particular experience, though, it became very clear to me that the Father desires to use our eyes to collapse the waves into matter.

In this process, the manifester isn't us—it's Him. This is the embodiment of Yahweh, and it is His plan for the human race. This is the destiny we are meant to live in—the fullness of the stature of Jesus Christ. It is the way Jesus operated as a Son of God during His earthly ministry.

When He said, "The Father and I are one," it was a literal inhabitation of the Father within Him to such a degree that He could declare, "When you see me, you've seen the Father." Even His physical faculties were so fully inhabited by God that they functioned entirely in alignment with divine intent, operating as God in human form.

He was the incarnation of God. Yes, Jesus was the incarnate Son of God. He was God incarnate. But it was God operating as a human being in a physical body. This is what I'm trying to describe as best as I can—it was so incredibly profound.

I made some notes when I woke up, and this happened on the morning of New Year's Eve, December 31st. I knew in that moment that this experience wasn't just for me—it was for us. I knew it was for this time—for the work of God on the planet and what we are stepping into. He said:

“I inhabit your physical body to the degree that I inhabit your physical senses. I see through your eyes, and it is My focus and My intention that manifests. Yes, you are the vehicle. Yes, you are the vessel. But it is Me who is the Manifester through you.”

Then He went further and said:

“Who is inhabiting your physical senses? You will either envision and view things as Me, or... who? If you’re not living as Me, then who—or what—is seeing through your eyes and doing the envisioning?”

The Call to Fully Embody Yahweh

Are our eyes single? Or are we living in separation?

It was a powerful compare-and-contrast of how we are designed to operate versus how we often fail to. We are created to function in union with Him, but so often we don’t live in that revelation or state of being. Instead, we operate under the illusion of a separate self, unaware of the fullness of who we truly are in Him.

But this embodiment of Yahweh, this embodiment of the King of Glory, is where we are going. Honestly, I don't have words to describe the experience—the glory, the majesty, the whoa—the union I’m talking about here. Then He spoke to me about yielding our bodies to Him as a living sacrifice, and He took me to Romans 12:1 in the Mirror translation:

“Live consistent with who you really are, inspired by the loving-kindness of God. The most practical expression of worship is to make your bodies available to Him as a living sacrifice. This pleases Him more than any religious routine.”

And this is really powerful. It says He desires to find visible individual expression in your person.

The Redemption of the Human Race

What I'm describing here is the full embodiment of Yahweh, and this is what Romans 12:1 calls our reasonable service. Isn't it incredible to think that embodying Yahweh is considered our reasonable service?

This is our service to God—to embody Yahweh. Then He said something that truly struck me:

“You don't disappear; it's when you actually appear.”

That is the redemption of the human race:

- A glorified human being
- A transfigured human being
- A son of God fully embodying Yahweh

That is why we are collectively called the body of Christ. We are literally the physical component of the Godhead on the earth right now, and this is for our glory. Then He said to me:

“You are the house of Yahweh. You are the house of God. In this embodiment, there is no consciousness of separation, no consciousness of a separated self. There is no consciousness of the old man.”

Heaven's Technology: The Human Body as a Vessel

He revealed that our human bodies are actually technology—technology that Yahweh desires to embody in order to influence creation, affect matter, and transform the seen realm. Yahweh wants to co-create with the sons of God to bring His Kingdom and His will to pass on the earth. And that is our reasonable service. That's just incredible, isn't it?

I went back to a few things I'd written down in the past—that the human body is the most important technology in all of creation. Why? Because it has the unique ability to house the Godhead. It can house Yahweh. It can house our Father. It can house the King of Glory, the Great I Am. Whoa!

The Father desires to utilize your faculties as we yield ourselves as instruments of righteousness—to manifest His heart, His mind, and His intentions. This goes far beyond any New Age, five-step manifestation formula you've ever learned or been taught. It surpasses "The Secret," visualization, and every manifestation technique we've encountered.

This is the true embodiment of Yahweh, where heaven manifests through us because we are operating as Him—in As Me consciousness, awareness, embodiment, and being. It was such a profound experience, and my prayer is that we will all encounter this reality. Even now, as I'm speaking, I pray that you'll receive an impartation of it, because this is ultimately the culmination of why the fivefold ministry exists and what the gospel proclaims.

It's the embodiment of Yahweh:

- To be the house of God
- To be the body of Christ

So that God Himself is operating on the planet through a body that is collectively us. And so, wow—what a revelation. That revelation is absolutely mind-blowing. It's a revelation that completely shifts your consciousness. It shatters your identity, your idea of self, and your concept of what's possible. It just blows everything wide open—like your brain exploding into the mind of God. And this is exactly what God is declaring for 2025.

The Word for 2025: The Holy Spirit is Blowing our Minds

Mind-blowing.

It's absolutely mind-blowing what God is doing right now—and what God is doing all over the planet. Honestly though, it's not just right now. Jesus has been in the mind-blowing business since He rose from the dead.

The Holy Spirit is in the business of blowing our minds—transforming everything into the image that Papa originally designed for human beings and everything else to reflect His glory and bring Him pleasure. That's what God is doing—blowing our minds in the process.

Stepping Into the Eternal Now

As I sat with everything God was revealing, I found myself asking, 'Where do we go from here?' This wasn't just a question—it was an invitation into something deeper. From there, I began to receive a word about the Eternal Now.

I had actually shared this word before having that experience, but I started to see how it all connected. The more I meditated on it, the more I realized: When we see with God's eyes and fully embody this place where our physical and spiritual senses are completely yielded to Him, they're no longer ours—they're operating as His.

This means that right now we have access to everything that is, was, and will be. This eternal now is where God dwells. It is there, in the spirit, where the end is declared from the beginning, where the Lamb was slain before the foundation of the world, and where we were chosen in Him before the foundation of the world.

It's the place where the past, present, and future all converge into a beautiful tapestry of possibility. Everything that exists in the mind and heart of God—for everyone, everywhere, all at once—is held in the eternal now. It is, again, mind-blowing.

It's overwhelming to even try to comprehend it with our human minds. Yet, God is fully present in it, and we have access to it because we are seated in heavenly places in Christ. Through Him, we access the perceptions of Christ and the mind of God, even within our human bodies. We are simply vessels—temples—through which He moves, perceives, and thinks.

Experiencing the Zoe Life of God

This is Zoe—God's existence.

It's not something we climb into or achieve. It's an experience, an awakening, a revelation—something that God does in us. It's an encounter, an experience of God as us. Honestly, I think that even as I'm sharing this, I'm releasing it. I'm not in control of this—I'm simply a recipient of it, as we all are. I am at the mercy of God's grace, just as we all are.

Our part, our reasonable service, is to just be available, to say yes, and to offer ourselves fully to Him and say, "You have permission to use me and express Yourself through me. You have permission to find visible, individual expression through me." That's our reasonable service. That's our part.

A Word for This Time and Season

As I stepped into this eternal now, into this perception and perspective of God—where everything is finished—it led me to a word that I shared in Elevate during January's training.⁵ I just want to share a little of this word with you because the word for the year was powerfully highlighted to me through this experience.

And so, I'm going to read some of this and then we'll put it in the context of everything I've been sharing so far. During the Elevate teaching, I felt an urge to pray in the Spirit. I didn't even know what was going to happen, but as I began to pray in the Spirit, this is what came out:

"It's time for the mysteries and secrets I've ordained for your life to be revealed to you. It's time for your yes. It's time for a full surrender to Me and My agenda for your life. It's time to move out of the 'I can'ts' and into 'I can do all things through Christ.'"

But then I heard something even deeper:

"It's time to get out of 'I' completely. It's time to leave behind the 'I' that isn't Him entirely."

Then He began to talk to me about how Moses had excuses—reasons why he believed he couldn't do what God had called him to do. Gideon had excuses too. I mean, let's be honest—nobody feels fully qualified. But then He said:

"I chose you. You didn't choose Me—I chose you. I ordained you, positioned you, and planned a glorious life for you."

But then He said, and this is really what I want to declare for 2025:

“THE WAY I WANT TO MANIFEST MYSELF THROUGH YOU, AS YOU, IS MIND-BLOWING!”

The Radical Nature of This Revelation

Let's sit with that for just a moment, because there isn't a single exception for anyone listening to the sound of my voice. He desires to find visible, individual expression through your person, and the way He wants to do that is absolutely mind-blowing. It's mind-blowing!

I even went and looked up the definition of 'mind-blowing' so we could fully grasp what that actually means—because what God wants to do through you, as you, is truly mind-blowing. And here's what I read: "Overwhelmingly impressive."

Okay, but honestly, that doesn't even feel like it does it justice. When I read that definition, I thought, No, it's more than that. It's so much more than that. Then I came across another definition of 'mind-blowing'—a description of something akin to a drug-induced hallucination. And I thought, Okay, now that's probably a little closer to what God is talking about. I've said this to myself many times: "I'm either crazy, or I'm not. There's no middle ground here."

In other words, this is either God—so mind-blowingly full of awe, wonder, majesty, and glory, with words that I can't even fully find to describe it—or it's not. It's just literal craziness. It's like a hallucination. But let me say what God said one more time:

"The way I want to manifest Myself through you, as you, is mind-blowing."

A Call to Take the Limits Off

I'll read the rest of what God shared now. He said:

"And so you're going to have to let Me blow your mind. You're going to have to get out of your mind and into Mine."

Then He said this about the topic of The Eternal Now, which He gave me to teach this month in Elevate:

"It's something My daughter (me) is just beginning to tap into, but I am in it, and I am on it. As you spend dedicated time with Me, setting aside time to listen, to seek My wisdom, and to seek My face, I will reveal, I will speak, and I will challenge you to believe impossible things."

"I'm not limited. I'm not limited by man. I'm not limited by time. I have no limits, and therefore, neither do you. Take the limits off and allow Me to be Me. Take the limits off and allow Me to be Me—in you, through you, and as you."

"Let Me have My way with My bride. I bought you at a price. I paid for your freedom. And I just want to say—I paid for your body and for the glory I've placed within you to be released. I paid for it. And all that's required is your yes."

"It's simple, but it requires you to believe that I'm capable, that I'm good, and that I am who I say I am."

God's Strategic Timing

He went on to say:

"This is higher than you've been before. This is more majestic than what you've been able to perceive. But trust Me, sons and daughters—allow Me to reveal it. Allow Me to reveal My plans and purposes to you. This is a strategic time on planet Earth, and there are connections and strategies already in motion that involve you."

"Getting and staying on My agenda—and not allowing external things to pressure you, steal your joy, or take your attention—is really important."

"I believe in you. I love you. I believe in you because I believe in who I am in you."

"The time for the eternal now to manifest in your life is now. The time for the things that I've planned for you in eternity to be accomplished is now."

The Only Requirement: A Yes

And all He's asking for is the same thing He always asks for - just a yes. I was reminded of how the angel came to Mary, and she simply said:

"Be it unto me, according to your word."

All I'm really tasked with today is to put this out there—to put this inhabitation of Yahweh and His desire to express Himself visibly through you out there. This word is a seed. And the correct response isn't, "What do I have to do?" I mean, Mary did ask, "How's this going to happen?" But before that, she simply said: "Be it unto me according to your word!" Then she continued the conversation with the angel, asking:

"How is this going to happen, Lord?"

The Culmination of God's Work in Us

So really, this is going to be a conversation. This is going to be a revelation. This is going to be an elevation of consciousness. This is the work of God in your life. This is the work of Holy Spirit on the planet. This is the elevation of human consciousness. This is the embodiment of Yahweh in the body of Christ. This is the work that is being accomplished in us.

And because God is going to have His way with His bride—and He is declaring this today—He will do it. He will fulfill all of His pleasure, and He will do what is necessary for us to will and do His good pleasure. Because it's all for His pleasure. It's all for His glory. Whoa. And it's all for the manifestation of the sons of God. And it's all for the manifestation of heaven on earth. Whoa.

A Time for Revelation, Encounters, and Dreams

So, beloved, mind-blowing—that's what God is doing. Blowing our minds with the full inhabitation of Himself. And I'm on the same ride you're on, that we're all on, and it truly feels like a ride. I just wanted to share that this is a time for dreams, a time for revelation, a time for encounters. This is a time when the Spirit is going to move powerfully in your life.

You are going to receive this revelation. You are going to receive this elevation. You are going to offer your body as a living sacrifice, and step into the full embodiment of Yahweh, who is already within you. Yahweh is going to become your I. Yahweh is going to become your life, your operating system, your way of being. This is not a place you are going to visit. This is not a visitation from God—it is an inhabitation of God. It is a place of surrendered living. It is a place where our minds are so blown that they are no longer consulted.

Blessings and Charge for 2025

And so, I bless you.

I bless you as we step into this word.

I bless you as we step into this year.

I bless you with mind-blowing revelation.

I bless you with mind-blowing understanding and knowledge of the glory of Jesus, of Papa, and of Holy Spirit.

And, returning to my scripture, I bless you with resurrection.

I bless you with resurrection out of the death trap of enslaved thought patterns and resurrection into the visible, individual expression of God in your person.

This is going to be a wild ride—and it's going to be fun.

I'm so excited to see how this word manifests in our lives. So God bless you. And remember, our part is simple:

"Yes, Lord, be it done to me according to Your word."

We simply mix it with faith, knowing it's already done saying:

"Have Your way, Papa. We yield, we offer ourselves, and we surrender."

All right, guys. I love you very much. God bless you, and we'll see you soon.

Step Into Your Next Level

If this word has resonated with you and you feel the Spirit stirring within you to go beyond what you've known, to break free from limitation, and to fully step into divine manifestation—I want to invite you into an environment that will activate, accelerate, and fully embody this revelation.

Transformation doesn't happen in isolation—it's meant to be nurtured, activated, and walked out in community. This isn't just about gaining knowledge—it's about receiving impartation. It's not about striving for self-improvement—it's about yielding to transfiguration. And this isn't a promise for someday—it's a reality unfolding NOW.

Whether you need a structured transformational journey, ongoing mentorship, or practical training to sharpen your ability to hear God's voice clearly, there are multiple ways we can walk this out together. If you're ready to step fully into this reality of As Me consciousness, here's how I can help.

Hear God on Demand Course

Do you struggle to hear God's voice clearly? Do you second-guess whether it's really Him speaking? This self-paced training eliminates the guesswork and gives you practical tools to hear God's voice as clearly as Jesus did. In just 90 minutes, you'll gain step-by-step guidance, activations, and journaling prompts to help you turn prayer into a two-way conversation with the Father—anytime, anywhere.

Through this step-by-step course, you'll:

- Discover why hearing God isn't reserved for “special” believers—it's your inheritance
- Learn practical tools to tune in to His voice with clarity and confidence
- Experience activations that turn prayer into a dynamic, two-way conversation
- Receive journaling prompts & daily declarations to strengthen your ability to hear

This training will break barriers, increase your confidence, and make hearing God a natural, daily experience in your life.

Referenced Scriptures

Matthew 11:15 (The Message)

"Are you listening to me? Really listening?"

Psalms 139:16 (The Passion Translation)

"You saw who you created me to be before I became me! Before I'd ever seen the light of day, the number of days you planned for me were already recorded in your book."

Ephesians 4:13 (NIV)

"Until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ."

Jeremiah 31:33-34 (NIV)

"This is the covenant I will make with the people of Israel after that time," declares the Lord. I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. No longer will they teach their neighbor, or say to one another, 'Know the Lord,' because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest," declares the Lord. "For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more."

Galatians 2:20 (NIV)

"I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me."

Ephesians 5:14 (The Mirror Translation)

"This is the message of light: Christ awakens you from your intoxicated slumber and resurrects you out of the death trap of enslaved thought patterns."

Romans 12:1-2 (The Mirror Translation)

"Live consistent with who you really are, inspired by the loving kindness of God. My brothers, the most practical expression of worship is to make your bodies available to Him as a living sacrifice; this pleases Him more than any religious routine. He desires to find visible, individual expression in your person. Do not allow current religious tradition to mold you into its pattern of reasoning. Like an inspired artist, give attention to the detail of God's desire to find expression in you. Become acquainted with perfection. To accommodate yourself to the delight and good pleasure of His will transforms your thoughts afresh from within."

Romans 8:29-30 (The Passion Translation)

"For he knew all about us before we were born and he destined us from the beginning to share the likeness of his Son. This means the Son is the oldest among a vast family of brothers and sisters who will become just like him. Having determined our destiny ahead of time, he called us to himself and transferred his perfect righteousness to everyone he called. And those who possess his perfect righteousness he co-glorified with his Son!"

1 - Word of the Year for 2019

In order to be truly successful in life, My kids must live out of their true identity. They must live out of who they are in Christ. They must live out of the place where they are abiding in Him.

This means that each of them must stop identifying with their old self-image – the unregenerate “me”, the separated “me,” the alienated “me”, the independent “me.” This “me” no longer exists. It’s just a memory of who they’ve experienced themselves to be over the course of their life.

However, this memory of “me,” who in reality no longer lives, must die in their minds!

You cannot identify with the old man and the new man at the same time. You cannot be joined to Me and separate from Me at the same time.

The state of abiding in Christ is the normal state and perpetual state of being for a believer, whether they are aware of it or not. Separation from Me is always just an illusion.

However, when someone is deceived by this illusion, My life does not flow through them. As a result they cannot produce the fruit, i.e. results, they want. They cannot produce the fruits that only come from being connected to the Tree of Life.

My results are only produced by abiding in Me. The supernatural is the natural byproduct of your life as you abide in Christ.

But remember child, it is one thing to know who you are in Christ, yet entirely something different to live out of this identity as a way of life.

And this My child, is the reason I created you.

I have called you to help people live their life purpose and make a difference in the world the only way that it can happen – through oneness with Me.

This is also why you must never, ever, stop moving forward and believing Me for big impossible dreams for yourself and others.

Yes, it may be easier to live a “normal” life, but Jesus paid an incredible price for you to experience My Life.

If you want to know what those connected to you need to know coming into this year in order for this year to be the best year they’ve ever lived, tell them this...

Listen to My voice. Make knowing Me, living out of your true identity, and learning to abide in union with Me, your number one priority this year.

Success in life isn’t found in setting and achieving more goals. It is found in living life with Me, in union with Me.

Will you set and achieve goals living this way?

Of course you will.

You will set and achieve My goals. I will accomplish My will and establish My kingdom through you as you abide in Me.

However, you and your life will not be defined by these accomplishments, for who you are and your success in life is defined by who you are in Me.

2 - Love Note from God shared on 12/27/24: “Happy NOW Year”

My Precious Child,

As another year draws to a close and you look back on all that’s happened—the victories and the setbacks, the joy and the pain, the miraculous answers to prayer and the ones that seem to be delayed—I want to share my perspective with you.

I don’t perceive or measure time the way you do. To Me, your past, present, and future are all held in My hands simultaneously. Every prayer you think is still waiting for an answer, from My perspective it’s finished. You measure your progress based on how far you’ve come or how far you’ve still got to go, but I see you perfected and glorified – your destiny fulfilled before you were born.

That’s why Paul wrote, ‘For he knew all about us before we were born and he destined us from the beginning to share the likeness of his Son. This means the Son is the oldest among a vast family of brothers and sisters who will become just like him. Having determined our destiny ahead of time, he called us to himself and transferred his perfect righteousness to everyone he called. And those who possess his perfect righteousness he co-glorified with his Son!’ (Romans 8:29-30 TPT).

Notice how it speaks of your destiny being determined before time began – because from My perspective, it’s already done. So while you might see today’s challenges as obstacles to overcome, I see them as the very stepping stones I’ve arranged to reveal more of My glory in and through you. Each circumstance you face isn’t about getting you somewhere new, but about awakening you to who you already are in Me.

So what does this mean for the situations you are facing now? Those “unanswered” prayers, challenging relationships, and seemingly impossible circumstances—they’re not barriers to your destiny, they’re portals to revelation. Each one is strategically positioned to reveal another facet of who I am for you, to you, and in you.

You see, while everything is complete from My perspective, I've given you the glorious privilege of partnering with Me in revealing what's already finished. Like an artist unveiling a masterpiece, each choice to trust Me, each step of faith, each moment of surrender becomes a brushstroke that reveals what I've already created. This isn't about making something new—it's about participating in the revelation of what already is. When you pray, you're not convincing Me to act; you're agreeing with what I've already done. When you move in faith, you're not creating something from nothing; you're unveiling the reality that already exists in My eternal now.

That promotion you're believing for? It's not just about advancing your career—it's about revealing the authority you already possess as My co-heir. That healing you're contending for? It's about awakening to the truth of My life and power flowing through every part of your being. That restored relationship you're praying for? It's not just about reconciliation—it's about displaying the supernatural love that's already been poured into your heart.

So as you stand at the threshold of 2025, I invite you to see this new year differently than ever before. Instead of making resolutions about who you want to become, let this be the year you simply agree with who I say you already are. Instead of counting down to a fresh start, realize that every moment is an opportunity to see from My perspective.

Let each day be an adventure of discovery—not striving to reach some distant goal, but awakening to the glory I've already placed within you. This isn't about measuring progress or marking time—it's about living from the finished work, walking in step with My Spirit, and watching My eternal purposes unfold through your life.

Kisses from Heaven,

Papa

It's time. It's time for the mysteries and the secrets I have ordained for your life to be revealed to you. It is time for your yes. It is time for a full surrender to My agenda for your life. It's time to get out of the 'why we can't's.' It's time to get out of the excuses.

Moses had an excuse—he stuttered. Gideon had an excuse—he felt unqualified. The Bible is filled with examples of people who felt they weren't capable of fulfilling what God called them to do. But God says, "I chose you. You didn't choose Me. I chose you. I ordained you. I positioned you. I planned a glorious life for you.

The way I want to manifest Myself through you, as you, is mind-blowing. And so, you're going to have to let Me blow your mind. You're going to have to get out of your mind and connect with Mine.

This topic, The Eternal Now, that I gave My daughter to teach this month—it's something she's just beginning to tap into as well, but I am in it, and I am on it this month. As you spend time with Me, dedicated time with Me, and set aside time to listen and seek My wisdom and face, I will reveal. I will speak, and I will challenge you to believe for impossible things.

I'm not limited by man. I'm not limited by time. I have no limits, and therefore, neither do you. Take the limits off and allow Me to be Me—in you, through you, and as you. Let Me have My way with My bride.

I bought you with a price. I paid for your freedom and for the glory I've placed inside of you to be released. A yes is all that's required. It's simple, but it does require you to believe—to believe that I'm good, to believe that I am who I say I am, to believe that I can do more than you could ever ask or imagine.

This is higher than you've been before. This is more majestic than what you've been able to perceive. But trust Me, My sons and My daughters. Allow Me to reveal My plans and purposes for you. This is a strategic time on planet Earth. There are connections and strategies already in motion that involve you. Getting on My agenda and staying on My agenda, and not allowing external things to pressure you, steal your joy, or take your attention, is really, really important.

I love you. I believe in you because I believe in who I am in you. So let's wrap it up with this: The time for The Eternal Now to manifest in your life is NOW. The time for the things I have planned in eternity for you to accomplish is

NOW. And all I'm asking for is the same thing I always ask for: just a "yes"—just an "Okay, Papa, let's go."
