JOURNAL PROMPTS

What are your short term dreams?

What are your longer term dreams?

Do you have a vision board? If not, make one! Or start making lists of the things you are manifesting!

How does it feel to have [insert what you're manifesting here].

Write a letter reflecting on how the thing manifested, looking back on the event from a year in the future.

I feel most alive and excited when

I am so passionate about

If I could do anything in the world it would be

What fears or anxieties might come up by manifesting the thing you are manifesting?

What can you release to make room for the thing you are manifesting?
