Specialist Rabbit Bonding Support

Veterinary Referral Information

Specialist support for rabbit bonding challenges, introductions, post-fight re-bonding, and owner guidance - complementing your veterinary care.

About Fiona

- 500+ bonds supported in person and worldwide
- Only dedicated rabbit bonding service in Ireland
- Complex cases — special needs, bereavement bonds, last resort cases where other approaches have failed
- Contextualised bonding — every plan tailored to the individual rabbits, owner and home
- Online behaviour and care support via Fiona's Happy Bunny Club

“As a vet whose main expertise area is rabbits, I have worked with Fiona for years. Knowing that my patients are in safe hands is my top priority, so whether it's boarding, bonding or even just general advice on any aspect of rabbit care she's the lady I refer my clients to. It's lovely knowing there is someone else out there as passionate about bunnies as I am!”

Dr Jennifer O'Rourke, Palmerstown Vet Hospital, Dublin

When to Refer

- Repeated bonding failures · Escalating tension
- Post fight / injury re-introductions · Post-neuter introductions
- Owner anxiety or confusion · Mixed-size pairs
- Rescue rabbits struggling to settle
- No progress after weeks of trying
- Owners considering rehoming
- Complex cases welcome — e.g. special needs, bereavement bonds, and cases where other approaches have failed
- Owner needing behaviour or care support

Not sure if a case is suitable?

I'm happy to have a quick chat before you refer — just get in touch and we can work out together whether specialist bonding support would help your client.
