Subject Line: A Note from Fairfield for Gimmel Tammuz

Dear [Name],

Today, on Gimmel Tammuz (the Rebbe’s yahrtzeit), we pause to reflect on his extraordinary legacy: his acceptance and love for every single person, his unshakable belief in each soul’s potential, and his relentless optimism that no Jew is ever too far or too late.

Thanks to you, that legacy is alive and thriving right here in Fairfield.

Because of your support, Chabad is more than a center — it’s a home. A place where people of all backgrounds feel welcomed, embraced, and inspired to grow. You’re not just helping us run programs — you’re helping people discover their light and live with meaning.

Like the Rebbe, you believe in the power of every neshama, every soul. That belief comes through in the warmth, care, and community your support makes possible.

Thank you for being part of all the good that happens through Chabad.

May the Rebbe’s presence and influence continue to lift you up and bring you closer to HaShem, and bless you and yours with everything good, in all the ways that matter most.

With heartfelt thanks,
Rabbi Shlame Landa

P.S. Earlier this morning, I visited the Ohel (the Rebbe’s resting place) and I included you and your loved ones in my prayers. May everyone only experience revealed goodness and blessings.
