

Privacy Policy

At Livin' Organically, we prioritize your privacy and are dedicated to safeguarding the personal information you share with us. This policy explains what information we collect, how it is used, and the measures we take to protect it.

We collect only the information you provide directly to us, which includes your name, email address, and any additional details you choose to share through our response questionnaire. No financial data is collected or stored, and we do not track any other personal information beyond what is submitted via the questionnaire.

The information collected is used exclusively for purposes such as communicating with you about our services, scheduling appointments, and providing personalized health recommendations based on the data you have shared. We do not share or sell your personal information to third parties, except as required by law.

We are committed to ensuring the security of your information and employ appropriate measures to protect it. You have the right to request access to, or deletion of, your personal data at any time. If you wish to do so, or have any questions regarding your privacy, please contact Jodi Friebe at Jodi@livinorganically.com.

This Privacy Policy is subject to updates, and any changes will be posted on this page. Please review it periodically to stay informed of any changes. Effective as of September 1, 2024.
